Thinking Out Loud

H. M. L.

Met an old newspaper man this morning and when newspaper men meet they turn the tap wide open on reminiscenses. It developed we both had an acquaintance with Charlie Michelson, now the fountain head of all New Deal and Democratic "literature" that pours into editorial waste baskets. The time was when Charlie Michelson was much younger, just out of Nevada's sage brush and managing editor of the San Francisco Examiner, that the great earthquake made that cosmopolitan city a chaos. Newspaper men in the old days were dainty feeders and hearty drinkers and with the destruction of the Poodle Dog, the Pup and the Maison Riche, many of them moved out until such time as the stricken city recovered its gastronomic stability.

To the Sacramento Union one night came a late call from the managing editor of the Examiner, offering posts at a considerable advance in salary to the late Wells Drury, city editor, and your humble scribe, then night editor there. Without too much ceremony both accepted the offer and in course of two or three days landed in the great barn of a shack which Hearst had built temporarily for his cohorts on the Embarcadera south of Mission.

Your country journalist arriving shortly after midnight found the city room with only a half dozen lonely workers pounding typeyriters in a desolatory fashion. Timidly he approached a figure slouched behind a desk with his hat jammed over his eyes perusing a bit of copy. The country lad explained that he was going to work on the Evaminer the following day and inquired for a lodging place. Hardly raising his eyes from his reading the man behind the desk said: "I am staying at the Little St. Francis, myself, I don't know much about lodgings otherwise." and lapsed into silence. The rates of the Little St. Francis built as an emergency hostelry in Union Square after the destruction of the big hotel, were about $8 a day at that time, which was somewhat more than the stipend the Examiner was paying its reporters. It later developed that the man behind the desk was Charlie Michelson. He was not putting on side; he was not joking. He was merely stating all he knew about lodgings.

Then our newspaper friend told one. In the same year as mentioned above he had worked on a newspaper called the Cobalt Nugget. Had in fact helped to build a log cabin to house the newspaper in, and helped to move it from its tent into the new quarters. Next to the Comstock, Cobalt was the greatest silver camp in the world. We think he said its production was $600 000,000. One mine produced $200,000,000, and out of that mine one man made $62,000,000.

So there have been other Nuggets in other mining communities. Nothing new under the sun, except new phases of old things, primordial as regards gold nuggets, historic as regards journalistic nuggets.

GEYSER FROM OLD MINE TUNNEL WASHES OUT ROAD

Supervisor Dudley is having a detour road built around the portion of the county highway washed out by the flood from the old Bloomfield hydraulic tunnel Friday evening. The detour will go across the end of the Malakoff Diggings between Lake City and North Bloomfield and will be used until repair of the washed out section is completed.

The flood washing out the road was of a most unusual nature. Shaft No. 7 of the old Bloomfield hydraulic mine caved in carrying the roadway with it. It is believed some underground dam broke and let a huge stream of water come down the old tunnel and that the shaft walls caved in. The flood water came from a big body of water which had accumulated in the diggins during the winter because tunnel through which the water would ordinarily flow was obstructed by debris.

The water came to the surface through the shaft of about 1500 feet in depth, shooting up and carrying away the roadway. Saturday morning more than 10,000 inches of water was coming out of the shaft.

Mrs. W. C. Fouyer and son, Ainsley, are spending a two weeks vacation in Oakland.

Brush Fire Menaces Historic San Juan

A motor car, atching fire from its ignition system at the North San Juan baseball game yesterday afternoon, burned up and started a blaze which covered 225 acres before it was finally checked this forenoon by 70 fire fighters working under the direction of Jack Amundsen, assistant state fire warden. The car belonged to Almond Miser.

The car had been driven beyond the baseball field this side of North San Juan and parked in high dry grass. When the fire was discovered the baseball players and audience adjourned and began trying to put it out. They had no shovels to work with, but Mrs. George Uhrig brought a lot of sacks and the fire fighters had nearly it out when a sudden breeze sprang up and carried the blaze into a field of dry grass. It got away from them.

While the car was burning Harry Ramsden, father of Mrs. Uhrig, started up to the reservoir to bring back several cans filled with water, and while his car was parked near the reservoir the flames engulfed the car and destroyed it. Mr. Ramsden in endeavoring to put out the fire around his car fainted away and was only discovered in the nick of time to save him from death in the flames.

The fire spread rapidly and the aid of State Fire Warden William Sharp was asked over the phone. He had been injured in a auto accident Saturday night and was unable to go, but sent his assistant, Amundsen, with all the men he could muster. Crews of CCC boys were ordered out from White Cloud and Camptonville camps, until the total force numbered over seventy men.

The blaze ran so rapidly through the dry brush and grass that for a time North San Juan itself was threatened. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cunningham, a bunch of burning grass fell on the cement side walk that ran through a patch of dry weeds, and burned out miraculously without setting fire to the nearby tinder. Spot fires started in the dry grass and a group of local volunteers were on the alert all last night to see that these did not spread.

GLARING LIGHTS FORCE W. F. SHARP OVER GRADE

While driving into Nevada City over the Downieville highway Saturday evening at dusk State Ranger William F. Sharp was blinded by lights of an approaching car on a turn and went off the grade, his car rolling over and down the embankment. The other car continued on its way. Mr. Sharp received many bruises and several cut fingers.

He crawled out of his car and took his first aid kit and bandaged his injuries, and climbed up the hill where he tried to flag motorists for aid but was not heeded. Mr. Sharp walked the two and a half miles to Nevada City to secure aid.

WORLD FAMOUS ENGINEER HERE

It is reported Waldemar Lindgren renowned mining engineer, is to visit Nevada City in a few days. This is the only engineer that has ever made a comprehensive report of this district. It has been between 35 and 40 years since the reports were made but they are relied upon today as standard.

Mr. Lindgren is a man about 80 years of age. He lived at Washington for a time and it is believed filed on mining ground near there.

He was in this district over a long period of time, moving from one section to another to take exhaustive notes on the ledges and gravel channels. It was no easy task and from time to time pioneers speak of meeting this world renowned engineer, then little known, traveling about alone through the mountains as he traced the various mineralized formations.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of this city enjoyed a trip around Lake Tahoe and home via Placerville last Friday. It was their first trip over this route.

THE GOVERNOR WAS IN A HURRY

Governor Merriam was in a hurry Saturday. Accompanied by two traffic officers his car never stopped at the stop sign in Pine street, corner of Broad. Traffic Officer Ninnis hailed them but they neither saw nor heard him apparently, but forged ahead up Broad street, and out the Downieville highway. His destination was Downieville where he visited over night J. M. Ingram whom he recently appointed to the Sierra judgship. Driving the governor was Traffic Officer E. F. Cassell, accompanied by L. J. Jarvis, another patrolman.

On the way to Downieville, about two miles this side of Camptonville, the car stopped at the signal of James Fisher well known mining man of Larkspur, Marin county, who is operating the Mountain View mine in Sierra county.

Fisher and his partner, Axel Hansen of San Francisco, were returning from North San Juan where they had gone for supplies for the mine. At a point two miles south of Camptonville, in driving too close to the edge of the highway the car slipped from the highway and rolled into the canyon 200 feet below.

Fisher was thrown clear 60 feet down the steep declivity, but Hanson was held in the car until it reached the bottom of the canyon. On his hands and knees Fisher painfully climbed to the roadway to signal passing cars for aid. Three parsed without heeding his appeal.

A fourth car passed, then stopped. Out of it stepped two nattily uniformed traffic officers, Sam Browne belts and everything. One of them approached Fisher and asked:

"What the hell's the matter?"

Fisher told him that his car had slipped off the highway and rolled to the bottom of the canyon and that his partner was in the car and he did not know whether the latter was living or dead.

Governor Merriam then stepped out of the car and joined the group. He suggested that a Division of Forestry truck was just behind them coming up the road and that the driver would probably render help. The truck came along and Earl Pauly the driver started down the hillside to aid Hansen.

Just then another Division of Forestry truck came along and then Governor Merriam stated "We better get going. We will stop at Camptonville and send back help."

According to Fisher's statement at Jones Memorial Hospital in Grass Valley last night no aid came from that place.

Pauly found Hansen in the automobile at the bottom of the canyon unable to extricate himself from the mass of rock, brush and logs which covered the car. The injured man was brought to the roadway by Pauly and taken in the Forest Service truck to Nevada City.

Fisher was taken in the other truck to Camptonville and then brought back to Nevada City. He was taken to the county hospital where he was informed that emergency cases were not handled there and advised to go to the Jones Memorial Hospital in Grass Valley. He visited two doctors in Nevada City without receiving aid and then continued on to the hospital at Grass Valley.

His injuries there were found to be a broken left wrist, injuries to his back and a possible puncture of the abdomen. His face is also badly cut.

Hansen's injuries consist of a broken shoulder, cuts and bruises.

Governor Merriam and Traffic Officers Cassel and Jarvis continued on to Downieville where Saturday night the executive was a guest at the home of Judge J. M. Inman. Saturday night between the hours of 7 and 9 he was tendered a reception at the Inman home, Downieville citizens calling to greet him.

Yesterday he attended the big picnic and barbecue at Loyalton and then made a leisurely inspection of the roads in that section of Sierra county.

CAMPTONVILLE PLANS TO BUILD SWIMMING POOL

CAMPTONVILLE, Aug. 10.—A movement was started here Friday by a group of citizens for the erection of a community swimming pool. Fred B. Hanson has expressed his willingness to donate a piece of land for that purpose, and water for same will come from the overflow of the Forest Service water system, which will give ample water for a fresh water pool.

The location of the proposed pool is in the lot below the cemeteries, on Spencer street, just opposie the end of the alley past the residence of J. E. Pauly, right in town and an ideal site for such a thing. It is proposed to make application to the Works Progress Administration for the construction of the pool, and WPA officials look upon the proposed project with favor. Those interested propose to give dances and other entertainment to raise funds with which to apply towards the purchase of cement for the pool.

This will be a decided asset to the community for as it is now, those wishing to swim must go eleven miles to Indian Valley, seven miles to Freemans Crossing, or walk two miles to Oregon Creek. The latter has been the most popular place, and it brings about great danger from falling over the cliffs into the canyon or by getting rattlesnake bit.

AIRPLANE MIRACLE

Mr. Eyza Kilroy stated today that the expensive airplane operated by Bill Middleton of Wheatland, on a visit to this section and the Nevada City airport July 26 which had a mishap near Smartsville, contained as passengers his two cousins, Bud and David Kuster, of the Earl district, Yuba county. The fuselage came loose on the wing while flying letting the wing drop off. Middleton fortunately brought the plane to a safe landing, all miraculously escaping without a scratch.

Downieville Citizen Urges Sierra County To Support Bigelow

George F. Taylor, county surveyor, or Sierra County, last week wrote the following letter to the Downieville Messenger. Chiefly he urges the election of R. L. P. Bigelow to the state senatorship from this district because of the good work he has done in securing for Sierra county the Yuba Pass and Gold Lake roads.

The letter is reprinted in this issue of the Nevada City Nugget because the reasoning of Mr. Taylor should also appeal to the voters of Nevada and Placer counties with equal force. Not even the State Highway Commission has been so progressive and active in improving communications and roads in the three counties as has Mr. Bigelow over his term of 28 years, as Forest Supervisor in this district. Mr. Taylor's letter follows.

August 5, 1936.

Editor of the Messenger:

Recently many of our citizens have been bombarded with letters offering advice as to how to vote in the forthcoming election for State Senator. This advice all runs in favor of the incumbent State Senator.

The fact that these letters were written (or sent) by people living outside this Senatorial District arouses mild resentment among those recipients who feel that they are abundantly able to form their own judgment on the subject without outside advice.

We all know both candidates personally, are familiar with their past performances, and believe we know some of the needs of our District.

When we think of the needs of our District we think of ROADS.

When we think of roads we think of BIGELOW.

It is inconceivable that anybody having the best interests of Sierra County at heart should forget the services rendered by R. L. P. Bigelow in securing for us the Yuba Pass Highway, the Gold Lake Road, and many minor roads. He has been our best friend. Without Bigelow's help we would still be travelling between Downieville and Sierra City in low gear.

Bigelow knows practically every square mile of our county. He appreciates the necessity for roads; knows all about methods and costs, and how to get cooperation from the powers that be.

In matters other than roads Mr. Bigelow is preeminently well qualified to look out for the interests of our district and the State of California. For 30 years he filled the difficult position of Supervisor of the Tahoe National Forest to the satisfaction of both the Federal Government and the public. This calls for rare tact, patience, diplomacy, integrity, and intelligence We need such men in the legislature.

By all means let us have Bigelow.

GEO. F. TAYLOR.

HYDRAULIC MEN URGED TO ACTION BY ENGLEBRIGHT

Congressman Harry L. Englebright on Saturday urged the members of the Hydraulic Mining Association to lay aside their fears and get busy complying with the United States Board of Engineers requirements by giving assurances that they will do real gravel mining when the debris dams are built.

The meeting was held in the National Hotel in Nevada City. Besides Congressman Englebright, State Mineralogist Walter W. Bradley and W. E. Harris, chief of the California Debris Commission engineering staff.

Mr. Englebright recalled the early difficulties of hydraulic miners. He stated that he last attended a meeting of gravel owners and operators 37 years ago which led to the meeting of a state convention being held which finally resulted in the passage of the Caminetti Act. At that time Mr. Englebright was associated with his father, the late W. F. Englebright, the late John Spaulding and others in You Bet-Red Dog placer operations.

Difficulties growing out of the Sawyer decision were of such magnitude that operations were limited. Then it was that the sagacious John Spaulding often admonished:

"Boys, hylraulic mining can never be carried on under the present restrictions until the government builds substantial dams and sells storage to the miners."

This sounded to the group addressed, the speaker declared, like asking for the moon, but after his election to Congress he started investigations and studies to discover why the Caminetti Act never functioned as intended—providing storage for a per cent of the proceeds—finally succeeded in having the act amended and eventually secured legislation and executive orders which provide for the actual construction of storage dams.

Englebright declared his full faith in the success of the project at the four locations now immediately under consideration and stated that the government was willing to go far beyond the present commitments providing that the operators and gravel owners were prepared to do their parts.

Observers at the long series of meetings declared that yesterday's meeting marked distinct advance and that the objective sought—sufficient acceptable assurances to meet the requirements of the Debris Commission—was nearer now than at any previous time.

The reluctance of some of the larger operators, notably the River Mines corporation of the San Juan Ridge, to provide definitely and strongly, was commented upon by Chairman Allen of the inter-relations committee and others. This was offset by the positive statement that sufficient yardage could be provided by the smaller operators to meet all requirements.

The next meeting will be held at Grass Valley on August 22 and will be a dinner meeting complimentary to Congressman Englebright. Reservations at the Bret Harte Inn will be open to the public.

Then And Now

PROMISE—

"We are attempting too many functions and we need a simplification of what the Federal Government is giving the people.

"I accuse the present Administration of being the greatest spending Administration in peace times in all our history—one which has piled bureau on bureau commission on commission, and has failed to anticipate the dire needs or reduced earning power of the people. Bureaus and bureaucrats have been retained at the expense of the taxpayer."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sioux City.
September 29, 1932.

"The people of America demand a reduction of Federal expenditure. It can be accomplished not only by reducing the expenditures of existing departments, but it can be done by abolishing many useless commissions, bureaus and functions, and it can be done by consolidating many activities of the government."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Brooklyn,
November 4, 1932.

Moral Courage Is Key to Character

Chicago, Ill.—The call to moral courage in rebuilding the American dream is the one note to be found in all Gov. Alf M. Landon's addresses and acts, Philip Kinsley writes in the Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Kinsley takes as characteristic of Governor Landon his utterance before a convocation of ministers at Topeka in January, 1933: "In the recent past we worshiped false gods and neglected too much the true and living God, whose precepts have guided mankind through the centuries."

Mr. Kinsley also quotes from an address by the governor in 1935: "For some time—several years in fact—I have been of the opinion that we will not have a real, solid, genuine recovery in this country until we have a moral recovery. And by moral recovery I mean character, integrity, upright honesty and square dealing. There is an old-fashioned phrase that I remember my father and mother using, as a boy. It is somewhat out of date these days, but describes what I mean. It is: 'He is a man of principle.'"

HOME MISSIONARY PICNIC

OLD PISTOL FOUND IN GOLD FLAT WALL

Bill Shelley of Stockton brought the metal part of an old cap and ball double barrelled pistol to the Nugget office today. The wooden part had rotted away leaving only the metal. Shelley and partner, O. L. Thompson, are working the old tailings on the Lotz property on Gold Flat and found the pistol tucked into an old rock wall they were tearing down.

GOVERNOR HEARS PLEA FOR ROADS

LOYALTON, Aug. 10.—Approximately 1,800 persons, including many from Sacramento and San Francisco yesterday attended Loyalton's seventh annual barbecue and picnic and witnessed the first visit of a governor of California to this Sierra county center.

Governor Frank F. Merriam in his address, as did the other speakers, dealt with the highway problems in Sierra county and promised that he would do what he can to further the Sierra Valley's ambition for more and better highways.

Superior Judge J. M. Inman of Sierra county stressed the need for highways in Sierra county and pictured the county's claim to more road improvements by the state

The hope that the state will do something toward the improvement of the Sierra Valley roads before the wintet storms arrive was expressed by Frank M. McGoldrick, who designated poor highways as Sierra county's Public Enemy No 1.—Sacramento Bee.

AN ON MUSSELS XTENDED SOUTH

ERKELEY, Aug. 10.—Like Mata i, famous woman spy of war-time is, the phosphorescent sea glow- m of the southern California st is beautiful but dangerous, for s one cause of the much-feared ll fish poisoning.

For several years the State Board Health has enforced a rigid quar- ine on sea mussels from Mont- y county north to the Oregon line ring the summer months. This rs, however, owing to the death two Los Angeles residents who mussels gathered from a Ventura nty beach, the ban has been ex- nded south of Monterey bay for e first time.

The Ventura outbreak marked the st time that toxic mussels had en discovered south of Monterey. w investigations are being con- cted as far south as the Mexican rder to prevent new attacks of this adly poison.

The source of shell-fish poisoning as unknown for many years, dur- g which it was claiming lives every ason. Then the Hooper Foundation the University of California, after exhaustive research, found that the mussels were made poisonous by the presence in the water of microscopic animal organisms, or protozoa, swept to the surface of the ocean by off-shore currents. Further study revealed that the glow worms which produce beautiful marine displays off the southern California coast are also a source of the paralytic poison which may cause death within two hours after eating infected shell fish.

BALANCE IN KANSAS

Topeka, Kas.—Kansas, whose Gov. Alf M. Landon's policy is "deeds, not deficits," was expected to close its books on a balanced budget at the close of the fiscal year, with a bigger amount of cash on hand than it had at the end of the 1935 fiscal year, according to the report of J. J. Rhodes, state treasurer. Rhodes reported that the unencumbered cash balance in the state's general fund May 31 was $1,572,481, compared with $889,591 at the same time last year.

NATIONAL DEBT IS NOW $1,131 FOR EACH FAMILY

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—"The Roosevelt spending spree" has piled up the national debt burden until it totals $1,131 for every American family, according to the Republican National Committee's new campaign textbook. "The New Deal spent on average of $2.12 for every dollar of revenue collected until, on June 30, 1936, the debt amounted to $33,779,000,000—an increase of 61 per cent over what it was when President Roosevelt took the oath of office."

To give adequate comparisons between the Roosevelt program of spending and the national debt of other administrations ,the text shows that prior to the World War, the public debt never exceeded two billion 755 million dollars, which was the peak after the Civil War.

Heavy military expenses during the World War raised the debt to twenty six and a half billion dollars. Under Republican administrations during the years 1920-30, ten and a half billion dollars was paid off the national debt.

During the Hoover administration, July 1, 1930, to March 4, 1933 government income took a bad slump as a result of the depression. The government made many loans in an effort to bolster commerce. This resulted in a three and a half billion increase to the debt, which was denounced by Candidate Roosevelt, who said:

"For three long years the Federal Government has been on the road to bankruptcy. Too often governments have been wrecked on the rocks of loose fiscal policy. I propose to you, my friends, that government—be made solvent, and that the example be set by the President of the United States."

The text book then states: "Yet in 3 1-3 years after he became President, Mr. Roosevelt increased the debt twelve billion 842 million dollars. Moreover, the end is not in sight. According to official statements, President Roosevelt expects to add approximately 3 billion dollars more to the debt. (which) will carry it to $36,500,000,000 by June 30, 1937.

"In addition to the debt outstanding, the Roosevelt Administration has caused the government to guarantee payment of principal and interest of obligations amounting to $4,719,110,667."

ELKS DELEGATES TO TOUR BRIDGES

OAKLAND, Aug. 10.—A tour of the two San Francisco Bay Dridges on the largest ferry boat in the world with lectures by engineers on the various construction problems which were encountered and solved during the bridge construction, has been arranged for the delegates to the State Convention of Elks which will convene here starting September 24.

"So much interest has been taken in the bridges by members of the lodges from all sections of the state that we have chartered the world's largest ferry boat to take the delegates for a tour of San Francisco Bay," explained Fred B. Mellman, chairman of the Convention committee and recently elected Grand Esteemed Leading Knight at the Elks National Convention in Los Angeles last month. "The vessel will be equipped with a loud speaker system and some of the engineers who worked on the bridge will explain the construction features."

Aside from the trip to the Bay bridges the delegates will be taken to Fisherman's Wharf, shown Alcatraz "The Devil's Island of America"; the famous Carquinez straits and other points of interest about the bay with a bevy of hostesses to suppply the information needs of the visitors Ann Courneen, Doris Nichols and Sally Taft, all beauty contest winners are among the hostesses for the boat trip.

Mr. George Wilson and son who are operating the Gracey mine at Nevada City also have a lease on the Black Oak mine in Garden Valley near Auburn. Mr. Wilson is from Silver City, Nevada. He has several men employed treating 25 tons of ore per day some of which assays $35 per ton.

Foreign Meat Now on U. S. Tables

Chicago, Ill.—Most of the world now is helping to supply the American dinner table with its meat at the expense of the American cattle grower, data on meat imports at New York compiled by the National Provisioner, a trade publication of the meat packing and allied industries, show.

During the week ending June 13, 1936, the following meat shipments arrived:

From Argentine, 509,416 pounds of canned beef.
From Brazil, 550,000 pounds of canned corned beef.
From Canada, 4,009 pounds of bacon, 1,385 pounds of calves liver, 23,697 pounds of frozen beef.
From Denmark, 10,724 pounds of cooked hams.
From Esthonia, 24,896 pounds of cooked ham, 2,950 pounds of salt pork.
From Hungary, 44,845 pounds of cooked hams.
From Irish Free State, 2,974 pounds of bacon.
From Italy, 2,746 pounds of salami.
From Lithuania, 67,620 pounds of fresh frozen hams, 10,340 pounds of frozen bellies.
From Poland, 22,688 pounds of smoked bacon, 241,867 pounds of cooked ham, 11,952 pounds of luncheon meat.
From Uruguay, 303,760 pounds of canned corned beef.
For the nine months ended April 30, 1936, there has been imported into the United States a total of 100,672,385 pounds of cotton seed oil, crude and refined, the publication points out.

These products come into direct competition in the United States with American farmers, and in the case of pork and cotton, drastic reductions have been made in American production under the New Deal agricultural policies.

New York Women Shun Tammanyized Democracy

Chicago.—"Women are beginning to understand that under the New Deal this is a government for the people, of the people and BUY the people," said Mrs. Henry R. Caraway of New York, president of the Women's National Republican club. She added that New York women "are seething with zeal over the Republican ticket."

"Women want to get away from the Tammany influence," she continued. "They cannot see the distinction between the Farley organization and Tammany in New York, since here Farley controls every federal job just as Tammany controls every city job in New York city."

Wallace Paid 300 Firms 38 Million

Bares Names of Producers Who Received More Than $10,000 from AAA

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The AAA paid $38,460,000 to some 300 producers in three years for not raising crops they were in business to raise, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace revealed in a report. This is an average of approximately $128,200 a producer, but far larger lumps of the New Deal "sugar" went to the large sugar producers.

Here are a few disclosed by Wallace in response to a senate request made at the vigorous insistence of Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.) that names of those who received more than $10,000 each be bared:

Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company, Ltd., $1,022,037; Oahu Sugar Company of Hawaii, $904,562; Lihue Plantation company, Hawaii, $815,409; Ewa Plantation company, Hawaii, $751,843; Waialua Agricultural Company, Ltd., Hawaii, $740,095.

Bank Gets $705,488.

Even the National City Bank of New York apparently got paid by the AAA for not raising sugar, for it received $705,488 on the same contract by which the Eastern sugar associates of Puerto Rico received $278,810.

Largest sugar payments on the mainland went to the United States Sugar Corporation of Florida, which was paid $785,038.

Lee Wilson and Company, Mississippi county, Arkansas, received the largest cotton payments—$392,702, while the Delta and Pine Land company of Mississippi received $318,287. Oscar Johnston, manager of the AAA cotton pool, is the Delta manager.

Large Hog, Wheat Payments.

The largest hog payment went to Fantana Farms in California, $155,575.

Among the large wheat payments were $51,066 to the Campbell Farming Corporation of Montana; and a total of $134,834 to the Sutter Basin Corp., Ltd., and the Sutter Improvement Company of California.

Landon Takes First Vacation in 4 Years

Topeka, Kan.—When Gov. Alf M. Landon and his family left here for Estes Park, Colo., it was the start of the first vacation in four years for the Republican nominee for the presidency. He was to spend two weeks resting in preparation for the campaign and in writing the speech with which he will accept his formal notification of the nomination, in Topeka, July 23. In between he hoped to sandwich a little horseback riding, of which he is fond.

With the governor were Mrs. Landon and the three children, Peggy Anne, nineteen; Nancy Jo, three, and John Cobb, two, and Mrs. Samuel E. Cobb, mother of Mrs. Landon. In addition there were a few members of Governor Landon's staff.

The governor was to return for the opening of the special session of the state legislature the second week in July, but Mrs. Landon is to remain until the notification ceremonies. The children will stay all summer.

1,814,000 Acres

In 1932 there was imported into the United States a total of 344,340 bushels of corn. In 1935, under the Roosevelt acreage reduction program, the importation of corn from foreign farms amounted to 43,242,239 bushels, the production of 1,814,000 acres.

Dr. Townsend Attacks 'Haphazard' New Deal

Cleveland, Ohio.—"Either profound ignorance or a deliberate attempt to wreck the American principle of government is evinced by all the haphazard, ill-conceived legislation by this administration," Dr. Francis E. Townsend declared before his organization here.

"Thirty-six billions of national debt is the record of these blundering, bungling mistakes," said Doctor Townsend. "Every act of government has been predicated upon the heedless advice of the President when he said, 'Try something; if it works, try it some more; if it does not work, try something else.'

"If this is not the advice of a total incompetent or a reckless fatalist who is incapable of thoughtful planning on a national scale, what is it?" Doctor Townsend asked.

Doctor Townsend defended the American form of government, particularly with respect to the Supreme court: "We are all determined that the insidious and poisonous propaganda against our established form of government must end," he said.

Roosevelt Primary Foe Supports G. O. P. Ticket

Topeka, Kas.—Listing seven reasons for his decision, Col. Henry Breckinridge, New York Democrat who ran as a candidate for President in the Maryland primary, asserted here he would support Landon and Knox in the Presidential campaign. Before announcing his position, Colonel Breckinridge paid a surprise visit to Gov. Alf M. Landon.

Colonel Breckinridge prefaced his reasons for enlisting under the Landon-Knox banner by declaring that the machinery of the Democratic party had "been seized by a group of men who had repudiated every living principle of the party and subverted the Constitution of the United States."

"Governor Landon's word is good," said Colonel Breckinridge. "He will perform his promises, he is direct and he has no hidden purposes."

A state crew under Assistant State Ranger R. Lawrence, from the state camp south of Nevada City, were called to a fire at Log Cabin, two miles west of Grass Valley on the Tahoe Ukiah highway yesterday at 12:45. It was brought under control after it had burned over an acre and a half of grass and timber land.

That Adjustable Song

We used to sing it long ago
With gusto, vim and verve;
And now we make it fit the times
And all occasions serve.

Governor Landon sings it this way;
"Oh Susannah, don't you cry for me,
I'm going on to Washington
With my banjo on my knee.

The Democrats hope he'll sing it like this — after the election.
"Oh Susannah, don't you cry for me,
I'll stay right here in Kansas
Where my friends and neighbors be."

As prepared for Al Smith;
"Oh Susannah, my goose is plucked and fried
I simply wished to take a walk
And they took me for a ride."

For the third party candidates;
"Oh Susannah, weep and wail today,
Third parties always peter out
In the good old U. S. A."

You see it is a useful song—
It's patriotic too;
But when and where to sing the thing—
Well, that is up to you.

—A. MERRIAM CONNER.

Vote Half U. S. Highway Funds to Two States

Washington, D. C.—With Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes openly lobbying on the floor of the house, the lower body and the senate passed the "Blue Ridge pork bill" which calls for the construction of a 477-mile parkway through Virginia and North Carolina.

STATE CHAMBER OPPOSE TAX ON CHAIN STORES

With the statement that the chain store tax bill to be voted upon at the November election is unsound legislation and contrary to the welfare of California, the State Chamber of Commerce today issued a broadside to its members and regional councils urging opposition to the measure.

The action of the Chamber was taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors in Los Angeles August 7, placing the state organization squarely in the fight to defeat the chain store taxx which was passed by the last legislature and held up for referendum vote by the people at the general election in November.

The position of the Chamber, issued today by Joseph R. Knowland, President, follows:

"At the time the Chain Store Tax Bill (A. B. 2365) was pending in 1935, the Board of Directors of the State Chamber of Commerce adopted the policy that legislation of this character is fundamentally unsound and cannot be classified as a revenue measure. Further that to attempt to apply disciplinary remedies by such means is undesirable. This legislation is not designed to correct any specific abuses, but levies a tax on the number of places at which merchandise is sold, obviously an unfair basis of taxation."

"This bill was held up by referendum and will appear upon the November general election ballot for vote of the people."

"For reasons stated above, which clearly indicates that this proposal is contrary to the welfare of California, the State Chamber recommends that this measure be opposed at the November election."

Mr. Fred Cole, prominent mining man, who with his father Mr Thomas Cole, have extensive options in this district, arrived in Nevada City Sunday and left at 10 o'clock today. He is expected to return tomorrow.
